STATEMENT OF INTENTION

In the spaces that follow please indicate the type of collateral that you have securing a loan, whether you wish to keep it and continue to pay for it or give it back. (Mark an “X” in the appropriate column.)

If you should fail to perform your stated intention within 30 days of the date your case is filed with the Court (in a Chapter 7 only), you could lose the automatic stay protection of the Bankruptcy Code and lose such secured assets. We believe that creditors will not act to repossess collateral where the payments are current and the item (such as a home or vehicle) is insured, so please make sure to keep current on those items you wish to keep and make sure to maintain insurance.

By my signature below, I understand that to be eligible to file for Bankruptcy I must receive a briefing on credit counseling and budget analysis from a Credit Counseling Agency approved by the U.S. Trustee prior to being eligible to file my bankruptcy. Additionally, I understand that to receive a discharge under Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, I must attend a personal financial management course approved by the U.S. Trustee. The briefing and course may be provided over the telephone or the internet.

DOCUMENT RETENTION POLICY: Originals documents provided by the client(s) to Minnillo Law Group will be returned to the client(s) upon completion of the representation to the extent possible. THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS REQUIRED BY FEDERAL LAW (11 USC §527(b))

A debt relief agency providing bankruptcy assistance to an assisted person shall provide each assisted person at the same time as the notices required under subsection 527(a)(1) the following statement, to the extent applicable, or one substantially similar. The statement shall be clear and conspicuous and shall be in a single document separate from other documents or notices provided to the assisted person:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER.

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention needs to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a trustee and by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file Chapter 13 in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your Chapter 13 Plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

CREDIT COUNSELING AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT COUNSELING

Federal Bankruptcy Law requires you to obtain a “credit briefing” from an approved credit counselor before you can file for Bankruptcy. The credit briefing normally lasts about 30 to 90 minutes and can be done by phone, internet, or in person. There will be an additional cost for this that you will have to pay on your own. If you need assistance in obtaining this certificate, please do not hesitate to call.

You must have this credit briefing with one of the approved credit counselors. Also, you must provide me with a certificate showing that you obtained this briefing. That certificate can be faxed to my office at (513) 723-1620. The providers that have provided an attorney code for our office have our contact information on file and often provide discounts; please be sure to provide the code when asked.

Federal Bankruptcy Law also requires you to do a debt management class prior to receiving a discharge. You should do this class after your case has been filed and provide us the certificate of completion right away.
